Since 1993, NACR (www.nacr.com) has been a leading global integrator of best-in-class communications solutions and services, and a trusted advisor to more than 40% of the Fortune 100. The company serves as a single source for consulting, implementation, project management, training, maintenance, and managed services that improve productivity, efficiency, collaboration, and customer service.

Avaya Evolutions is an action-packed, interactive educational forum where attendees can learn from peers, industry experts, and innovation leaders from around the world. Designed for IT and collaboration leaders from enterprises of all sizes, Avaya Evolutions has attracted more than 20,000 attendees in the Americas since its inception in June 2010.

NACR works closely with Avaya and other technology innovators to integrate the latest hardware, software, and applications into end-to-end multivendor solutions for diverse markets. As a gold sponsor and exhibitor at Avaya Evolutions, NACR will highlight emerging technologies and its capabilities in areas including real-time collaboration and customer experience management (CEM).

"NACR is excited about participating in Avaya Evolutions — the premier place for discovering new experiences and driving demand in the business collaboration market," said John Behnken, National Vice President of NACR. "We look forward to talking with the CIOs and other IT leaders who attend, and showing how NACR can help them create a roadmap for enabling collaboration and a 360-degree view of the customer experience across their entire business."

Avaya Evolutions in Dallas will also feature keynote speaker Guy Kawasaki, co-founder of Alltop.com and former chief evangelist of Apple, Inc.; a general session with Henry Dewing, principal industry analyst at Forrester Research; and much more.

Customers who are interested in attending can register at www.avaya-evolutions.com — or contact their NACR National Account Manager (NAM) for more information and to arrange a consultative meeting at Avaya Evolutions.
