Enterprise Connect is a premier industry event for systems, software, services, and applications for enterprise communications and collaboration. The conference provides access to leading market and thought leaders, comprehensive analysis, and in-depth technical sessions, as well as more than 140 major system and software vendors and their products.

NACR is a leading integrator of best-in-class communications solutions and services, and a trusted advisor to more than 5,500 customers, from small businesses to FORTUNE ® 100 and global enterprises. The company serves as a single source for consulting, implementation, project management, training, maintenance, and managed services that improve productivity, efficiency, collaboration, and customer service.

"Industry conferences such as Enterprise Connect offer NACR a great opportunity to connect with customers and demonstrate how we can guide them in the migration to next-gen communication and collaboration technology," said John Behnken, National Vice President of NACR. "We are especially excited to participate for the first time in this event and have a chance to talk with attendees about their evolving needs and the ways in which NACR can help them make the best decisions about the products, services, software, and architectures that are right for their business."

Customers who plan to attend Enterprise Connect 2013 are encouraged to contact their NACR representative for more information or to arrange a consultative meeting at the event.
