

Mutare Earns Preferred Partner Status from NACR NACR and Mutare Team Up to Deliver Smart UC Solutions

EAGAN, Minn., Sept. 17, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Technology solutions integration expert NACR is pleased to announce that Mutare, Inc., an independent software developer for unified communications (UC) technology, has been named an NACR Preferred Partner.

NACR is a leading global integrator of best-in-class communications solutions and services, and a trusted advisor to more than 5,500 customers ranging from small businesses to Fortune® 100 and global enterprises. The company works closely with Mutare and other technology innovators to integrate the latest hardware, software, and applications into end-to-end multivendor solutions for diverse markets.

"Since NACR's inception, Mutare has been working side by side with us to deliver solutions that delight our customers — helping them improve their business processes, drive efficiency, and provide great service to their customers," according to Gerry Pearce, Vice President of Services Development at NACR.

As a trusted expert with more than 25 years of experience, Mutare provides customizable software solutions designed to make business communication easy, secure, and efficient. The solutions are backed by industry-leading implementation and customer support that eases the burden on internal teams. As a UC expert, the company specializes in unified messaging, mobility, contact center, and notification solutions

"Mutare and NACR share a commitment to superior customer support and deep expertise in communications applications that help customers communicate smarter," according to Ben Crown, President of Mutare. "We are thrilled to be an NACR Preferred Partner and to continue building on our great relationship and helping customers achieve their goals."

NACR established its Partner Program to identify top partners, nurture long-term relationships, and promote partner solutions with customers. Companies can qualify for one of three tiers of partnership based on criteria including national presence and regional support, ease of doing business, revenue, lead generation, parts support, technical training, and customer service. In return, partners receive NACR marketing and business development support designed to highlight the relationship, the partners' capabilities, and the benefits of their solutions to customers.
