

ConvergeOne Launches Fully Managed Private Cloud Solution

ConvergeOne Companies Deliver Secure, Reliable, Dedicated Cloud Technology

EAGAN, Minn., Feb. 18, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- ConvergeOne, a leading provider in the design, implementation, and management of state-of-the-art data and communications solutions, is pleased to introduce its Private Cloud solution, a secure, reliable cloud technology that is fully delivered, hosted, managed, and financed by ConvergeOne.

"Our private cloud solution gives customers the performance and security of a dedicated, fully supported cloud network, with the advantage of being able to leverage much of the investment our customers currently have in their premise based equipment," said John A. McKenna Jr., Chairman and CEO of ConvergeOne. "This offering is an example of our single source approach to custom integrated unified communications and collaboration solutions." McKenna continued, "Private Cloud provides a complete solution enabling our customers to increase their efficiency, reduce costs and focus on their overall growth and ROI."

The ConvergeOne Private Cloud combines all of the necessary components in a single bundle to provide the benefits of an on premise solution, with the ease of the cloud.

- The enhanced security of a dedicated environment
- A choice of leading vendor platforms
- The ability to scale, with simple, monthly cost pricing that's based on solution configuration and utilization
- A comprehensive managed services portfolio supported by cloud experts
- A private network with the power of the cloud but without the responsibility of maintenance and support

The ConvergeOne Private Cloud solution offers flexible financing options from ConvergeOne Capital, a privately held, self-funded, and self-managed financing service that offers ConvergeOne customers unlimited flexibility and options to pay for their technology solutions. Financing can include hardware, software, applications, managed and professional services, maintenance, and all solutions in the ConvergeOne portfolio.
